

Professional Services:

Texas Panel Company offers many services, all over the U.S. and internationally.

- Design – create standard and custom systems and controls for new or existing projects, working from basis of design or specifications.
- Engineering – drawings and specifications for new projects, expansions and renovations.
- Consultation – Meet with client and review basis of design, designs, drawings and specifications to ensure quality, functionality, efficiency and budgetary compliance for mechanical, electrical and automation components and systems.
- Inspection – Monitor construction and review final projects to assure proper design, operation and testing before & during commissioning.
- Programming & Configuration – Program and configure PLC's, VFD's, flow computers, HMI's, SCADA systems, DCS, redundancy systems, etc.
- Commissioning – Travel to project location to assure proper installation and operation of systems and components for new projects, expansions and renovations.

Technical Services:

In addition to professional services, Texas Panel Company provides the skilled labor that your project requires. We have the following personnel available:

- I&E Technicians
- Instrument Fitters
- Electricians
- Panel Makers

About Texas Panel Company

Texas Panel Company is a minority woman-owned business, committed to providing you with superior products and valuable services to ensure that your projects are done right from inception to completion. Above all, we offer Our Promise, that you will receive an unmatched level of customer service.